

Discovering Possibilities Onstage

CINDERELLA & HER BIG FEET JUMP ONTO THE STAGE AT THE WINNIPEG FRINGE.

Have you ever wondered what “Cinderella” looked like in the Swingin’ 80’s. This production is filled with big hair, flashy costumes, and a story the kids will be talking about all summer long. Dramatic Theatre is pleased to present “Cinderella of the Story of Bigfoot” live in Venue #6 at the Tom Hendry Warehouse July 16 to 25.

Ella Le Grand is an orphan living in her father’s house, now run by her cruel and selfish stepmother. Unlike most fairy-tale maidens, Ella does not have dainty feet. In fact, they’re huge! When she and her stepfamily are invited to the King’s ball, Ella is assisted by Dweezil Twistup, Fairy God-dude Extraordinaire, his sidekick Junior, and a pair of size 23 extra wide Nike Shoeboxes! When she finally meets Prince Alfonse XIII. Filled with laughs for the entire family. Come see how this modern day take on an old story unfolds.

Dramatic Theatre, Artistic Director Justin Danyluk is directing this family-friendly production. Winnipeg’s own Kinsey Donald will be portraying the role of Cinderella in this production.

Advanced tickets are now on sale. General admission is just $10 with a special-at-the door ticket rate of $8 for youth under the age of 12.
