

Discovering Possibilities Onstage

THE PRODUCTION THAT COWARD CALLED
"HIS MOST SERIOUS WORK" COMES TO THE WINNIPEG STAGE.

WINNIPEG, MB for immediate release - Dramatic Theatre is pleased to kick off their 2015 season with Noël Coward's "A Song at Twilight" running February 6 to 8 at the Forrest Nickerson Theatre (285 Pembina Highway) 2 blocks south of Confusion Corner.

In a sumptuous hotel suite in Switzerland, aging novelist and playwright Sir Hugo Latymer nervously awaits the arrival of a very old flame, actress Carlotta Gray, with whom he had rancorously split decades before and not met since. Apprehensive and vulnerable in his fading health, he bullies his wife and business manager of 20 years, Hilde, a German refugee, who reassures him as she sets out for dinner with a longtime lesbian friend.

Directing this production is Dramatic Theatre, Artistic Director Justin Danyluk. Technical Direction and Stage Managed by Victoria Perrie. The cast features Winnipeg based performers Martin Wilson as Sir. Hugo Latymer. The cast also features Kelley Hirst, Judy Arnason, and Tony Porteous.

Advanced tickets are now on sale. General admission is $15 or CowardPass. Reservations can be made by calling the Dramatic Theatre Box Office at (204) 221-8384. Showtimes are as follows; February 6 at 7:00PM, February 7 at 2:00PM and 8:00PM and February 8 at 2:00PM and 7:00PM.

For more information and media request contact (204) 221-8384.
